

Private Cooking Class Tour In Siem Reap

Trip Overview:

Bring home the perfect souvenir, the art of Khmer cuisine, from this hands-on cooking class in a traditional colonial home in the heart of Siem Reap. After a welcome drink, take a short stroll to Psar Chaa (Old Market) to learn about local ingredients. Then, with instruction from the chef, prepare your authentic Khmer food. Enjoy eating your own creation and leave with gifts including spices and a cookbook.

Tour Highlights Include:

- Learn to cook Khmer cuisine in a heritage building in downtown Siem Reap
- Tour the historic Psar Chaa (Old Market) to see how locals shop
- Prepare, cook, and savor a delicious 3-course meal
- Master Cambodian classics such as fish amok curry—and bring the recipes home

What's Included: Professional English-speaking chef, transport by Tuk Tuk, Cooking Recipes, Food and One Juice

What's Not Included: Other drinks and personal expenses

Pick Up Details: Pick up and drop off at hotel

Detailed Itinerary:

You spend a morning or an afternoon learning how to cook delicious and authentic Khmer food. You'll do more than just learn how to cook, you'll be taken to the Old Market to buy the ingredients which you need to for cooking. You can see how most locals buy their food and we'll explain each ingredient for you. You can learn where in Cambodia the produce is sourced and how ingredients are used in cooking. This hands-on experience of a local market is exciting in itself, but you also get to go back to the cooking class where you'll be taught how to prepare a local dish by a professional chef. You can opt to cook one of many dishes to your taste and take the skills you have learnt back home with you. Share your new Khmer culinary cooking prowess with your loved ones at home, we're sure they'll be impressed with your new skills!

After you have finished cooking your food, the best part has arrived! You'll be able to enjoy your hard work and eat your very own creation. The three hour cooking classes will take you through the entire process from beginning to end. You'll know what ingredients you will need, you'll learn how to prepare everything, how to cook a delicious meal, and finally, you'll get to eat.

Each class also includes a complimentary box of spices, a recipe book, and a certificate to say that you've completed an authentic Khmer cooking course!

Additional Information:

- No cooking experience required
- Wear comfortable clothes
- No age limit