Detailed Itinerary:

Your tour will begin with a drive you from your hotel to Wat Krom, a Buddhist temple at the base of Sihanouk Mountain. An experienced guide will lead you through the temple, which features excellent view of the sea and includes a unique little chapel dedicated to a local deity. Following this, you will continue past Victory Hill and Independence Square, where you will stop for a photo opportunity at the War Memorial as you learn more about Cambodia's history.

Next, stop at Sihanoukville's bustling marketplace, Psar Lu Market, where you can browse the many stalls with their colourful displays of fish and shellfish, poultry, palm sugar, tropical fruits, flowers and crafts.

Finally, you will drive to a typical Khmer fishing village, where you can view a traditional house and possibly meet with a local family. After enjoying a delicious Khmer lunch at a local restaurant, you will be returned to your hotel.

This tour may also be available in the afternoon upon request.
